ADVISOR
Miss Myrtie Cooper

The Points Committee, Jimmy Silverthorne, Margaret Sheppard, Faye Cherry, and Virginia Daniels, is trying to plan the best way in which to make a check of everyone's points. Just hope YOU don't have too many!!

Marie Moore writes down new publicity ideas. The rest of the Publicity Committee, composed of Lynette Jefferson, Melanie Wallace, and Sue Webster, contribute their own ideas.

The Finance Committee, Mike Willis, Bill Dunn, Blount Rumley, and Billy Thad Harris, count the money collected for our adopted war orphan.

SECRETARY

Annetta Jennette

TREASURER

Bill Dunn

The House Committee prides themselves on the fine job they do. Here Dorothy Saleeby, Lou Warner, Bill Alexander, and Jane Carraway take an interest in keeping our trophy case and floor clean.

The success of the Coronation Ball can be attributed to the Dance Committee. Here Jean Arthur, Carol Salle', Steve Cochran, Duffy Toler, and Sandra Harrell plan the schedule of dances for the Basketball Season.

The Bulletin Board Committee takes action to help keep our gym clean. Ginny Fowle and Duffy Toler fix the sign. Mary Elizabeth Noe and Judy Cameron watch.

Are you a new student at WHS? Then you have probably received a handbook from one of these three girls, Barbara Boyd, Joyce Sykes, Katherine Hodges, the Handbook Committee.

Class Poem

Class of '58

WHS,
Soon we leave;
Some joyfully,
Some reluctantly,
Some, barely;
All,
A little wiser
In some phase of life.
You
Have taught us
Many things not to be
Learned elsewhere;
You
Have given us many friends
Not to be surpassed,
Or found,
Elsewhere.
WHS,
You,
And our days with you,
Will never be Forgotten.

Richard Tripp
Class Poet

Senior Class History

We, the graduating class of 1958, entered our first year of school in 1946. From the first grade to the Senior year the students, working, studying, and playing together, formed many friendships. We carried out a number of projects which enabled us to understand and enjoy our friendships with our classmates more thoroughly.

It was a glorious day in our Junior year when we were measured for our class rings to signify that we were rising Seniors. We set our diligently to sell magazines for we knew that the profit from these sales would go for our first Junior-Senior banquet and dance. The Junior-Senior banquet brought about a heartfelt fellowship between the two classes. The dance continued this fellowship with the gathering of all Juniors and Seniors and their dates. Little did we know when we struggled over our short stories that the next year we would be faced with research papers. The top eleven in our class, scholastically, were chosen marshals.

Click, went the camera and the line moved on as the annual pictures were taken for the first major event of the Senior year. We established a new practice this year by having a Senior council composed of two room representatives from each of the Senior homerooms. The Senior council planned projects and activities under the guidance of the advisors and with the approval of the faculty. We chose our class officers on our last year of school to lead us toward higher goals. Along with our officers we elected our mascots. To receive a superlative is a real honor. Superlatives were chosen by the Senior Class. The highlight of the Thanksgiving season was the Coronation Ball which everyone enjoyed. Our Senior Play was the dramatic achievement of the year. Washington, D. C. was the destination of the Senior trip where we did much sightseeing in the capital of our nation. We were the honored guests at the Junior-Senior banquet and dance. We had a splendid time because of the effort of the Juniors. Those of us who were talented, participated in various activities provided by the clubs, sports, and organizations of our school. A well-remembered day was examination day when we toiled over puzzling questions and blank sheets of paper.

As time marched on it drew us nearer to our graduation. It was a day of honor to the Seniors as we capped our successors during this traditional ceremony which was held in the gymnasium. At the end of our Senior year we have one day in which to be a "kid" again. We traveled to Atlantic Beach to enjoy the sun and surf on our Kid's Day. The Senior class was led in worship at our Baccalaureate Sermon. The inspirational address strengthened our ideals and goals for the future. None of us will ever forget the thrill of appearing on stage during our class night.

The long awaited day had come for us to graduate. Our hopes and fears sounded in our hearts as we each received our diplomas. The singing of the Alma Mater with heartfelt enthusiasm brought to a close our graduation, and to an end our happy High School Days.

Last Will and Testament

State of North Carolina
County of Beaufort
City of Washington

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, being of sound body and not too sound mind, finding ourselves facing Graduation Day, feel the necessity of bequeathing our precious possessions to certain specified members of the rising Senior Class. Therefore we hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

Article I To the Superintendent, Principal, and teachers we leave the memory of our angelic faces.

Article II To the rising Senior Class we leave the following privileges:

1. Reserved seats in the lunchroom.
2. Coming upstairs during lunch.
3. Reserved seats in chapel.
4. Going to lunch at the end of third period.
5. Coming into the building before the first bell.
6. Senior trip
7. Kid's Day
8. Classnight

Article III To the Sophomores, we leave the job of selling magazines, and preparing the Junior-Senior Banquet next year.

Article IV To the Freshmen, we leave our superiority.

Article V Now, being the dignified Seniors we are, we bequeath our precious personal possessions, with the hope that they may be of some use.

The leadership ability of Charlie Mike Smith and Betsy Mason is willed to Bill Alexander and Nancy Thompson.

Sandra Harrell and Steve Cochran leave their cuteness to Kathy Wiley and Zoph Potts.

Ward Marslender and Ginny Fowle leave their good looks to Barbara Morris and Tommy Moore.

Jean Arthur and Sabin Leach leave their good taste in clothes to Pat Ayscue and Beverly Gautier.

Sally Brinkley and Barbara Jones leave their way with the men to Denise Owens and Diane Dixon.

The flirtatious ways of Sylvia Freeman and Fred Alligood are left to Hannis Latham and Rena Terrell.

Susan Roberts and Duffy Toler leave their talent to Anita Cahoon and Dick Jones.

The ability of Leigh Francis, Shirley Gaskins, and Phylis Wallace to have a good time is left to Dorcas Cox and Pam Toler.

The feminine ways of Catherine Eborn, Faye Cherry, and Betsy Cratch are left to Margaret Keech, Lou Moore, Dottie Morgan, and Joan Wells.

Eddie Knott leaves his ears to some lucky Junior.

Richard Tripp leaves his intellectual mind to Armistead Long.

June Grimes and Barbara Waters leave their straight A's to Hodges Hackney and Barbara Harrington.

The sweet dispositions of Joyce Woolard, Betty Jane Smith, Geneva Warren, and Janice Miller are left to Barbara Alligood, Virginia Daniels, Peggy Hull, and Mary Ann Smith.

Mary Jo Sawyer and Harold Harris leave their wit to Wyni Everette and Bo Coyle.

Tennys Bowers and Billy Ray Woolard leave their dancing ability to Dallas Congleton and Helen Williams.

Artie Rawls leaves his dark charm to Kenneth Cox.

Jimmy Warner and Harold Willard leave their buses to Danny Boyd, Jean Warren, and Harold Tyson.

Roger Jefferson and Geary Winstead leave the Commercial Department!!

L. M. Odom, Lee Warner, and Henry Lee Williamson leave their positions in the band to Glen Boyd, Johnny Respress, Arthur Williams, Billy Jones, and Dick Peck.

Albert Challis and Doug Currier leave their seats in the Glee Club to John Everson, Eugene Garris, Eleanor Hodges, and Jane Page.

John Ratcliffe leaves Mr. Grist's second period class without getting hit in the head with a book. Billy Langston leaves all of his headaches behind.

Danny Asby leaves his personality to Gus Youmans.

Betsy Bradshaw, Tommy Alligood, Dolly Squires, and Myron Ireland leave their shyness to J. A. Jackson, Marilyn Willard, Stony Woolard, and Edna Tyer.

Florence Ipock leaves her shorthand speed to Francis Farmer.

Bill Dunn leaves his brain power to Buddy Swain.

Donald Windly leaves his ability to "hot-rod" to Pat Brown and Bill Ramsey.

Margaret Sheppard leaves her stunning eyes to Valerie Rawls.

Albert Everson leaves his sideburns to anyone who might like to have them.

Irene Glover leaves, taking her originality and artistic talent with her.

Lou Warner leaves her name to Lou Warner.

Jane Boyd leaves her voice to Mary Elizabeth Noe.

Jessie Carney leaves her daintiness to Carol Hawkins.

Tommy Troutner, Bill Thompson, Ray Sawyer, Jim Rogers, Bennett Hall, Benton Parker, Kenneth Purser, and Roderick Roberson leave with the hope of never having to come back.

Billy Thad Harris leaves his intelligence to Sam Long.

Nancy Lupton leaves Shorthand willingly and gladly.

The good dispositions of Eddie Snow, Tommy Little, and Philip Norman are left to Leonard Sheppard, Donald Smith, Elbert Calcutt, Danny Rhem, and Dewey Woolard.

Philip Godfrey, Jack Cole, Charles Hull, and Larry Woolard leave their dignified ways as Seniors to Blount Rumley, Larry Tetterton, Hugh Willard, Gilbert Baker, Richard Paszt, and James Pollard.

Elizabeth Covington leaves her dimples to Iris Langley.

Anne Barrington and Jess Harrington leave their considerate ways to James Asby.

Geneva Congleton, Louise Miller, Joyce Sykes, and Joan Mizelle leave their typewriters to Jo Ann Watson, Jane Robbins, Joan Asby, Betty Cox, and Elizabeth Ramsey.

The sweetness of Dora Sawyer and Betty Woolard is left to Betty Parker, Ann Perry, Marie Hill, Sue Wallace, and Ruby Gaskins.

To Paul Bullock, Glen Day, Ronald Mounts, Fernie Oliver, Roland Baker, Ray Baker, Davy Dunn, Leroy Elks, Charles Hardy, Delma Lane, Richard Spears the hope of graduating next year.

Elizabeth Roberson, Peggy Schueck, Patricia Jackson, Virginia Harrell, Margie Manning, and Mary Woolard, are left with anything they might need during their Senior year.

To Steve Cox, Laverne Hansen, Wade Hardison, Danny Lupton, Ervin Manning, Gene Mish, Jimmy Smith, Ben Taylor, and Troy Waters, is left the thought of writing a research paper next year.

Sammy Corey leaves his place in the color guard to Jack Meekins.

Class Prophecy

"Say, stranger, have you ever been to Washington before?"

"No, I haven't."

"Have you ever heard of it before?"

"Can't say that I have."

"Haven't you ever heard of the famous class of 1958?"

"No."

"Well, let me tell you a few things about that class. First, did you know that Betsy Mason, who has accepted a position at Duke as advisor of the yearbook staff, was a member of that class? Then, there is Barbara Waters who has been recognized throughout the state for her most recent novel, THE RAGING SEA. This is a remarkable book and well-liked by the critics.

Sabin Leach has really come a long way. He recently won the Nobel Prize for his outstanding work in Physics. Ward Marslender is a well-known dentist in London.

Tennys Bowers is the Society Editor of the New York Times. Also typing for the New York Times are Betsy Bradshaw, Elizabeth Covington, Betty Jane Smith, and Phyllis Tuten. Jean Arthur is a designer for Dior and doing a splendid job. Sally Brinkley, Sylvia Freeman, and Ginny Fowle are modeling for a group of famous Parisian dress designers.

Carol Salle and Fred Alligood have become very prominent in the medical profession. Carol is at Rex Memorial Hospital, and Fred is at John Hopkin's Hospital. Betsy Cratch is nursing in Rome, and Faye Cherry is nursing in Paris.

Larry Aldridge is now manager of a whole chain of Colonial Stores. Working with him are a few of his old classmates, Bill Thompson, Tommy Troutner, and Lee Warner. George Gillikin is now Vice President of Chrysler Corporation. Joe Hassell and Lee Tankard are owners of the Budwieser Brewing Company, the largest of its kind in the world.

Philip Norman, Albert Everson, and Tommy Alligood are officials for the Greyhound Bus Line. Recently, Jim Rogers of the same company, was recognized as the Safe Driver of the year. Jim is also a master farmer.

Jessie Carney, Janice Miller, Jane Boyd, and Louise Miller are efficient secretaries for some of the outstanding businessmen in New York. Speaking of efficient secretaries, Joyce Sykes, Geneva Warren, June Hardison, and Catherine Eborn are working for the government in Washington, D. C.

A distinguished minister and two distinguished lawyers have come from the class of '58. Albert Challis entered the ministry, and June Grimes and Billy Carter became lawyers. Their most recent case concerned Harold Harris, a millionaire with income tax troubles.

We also have several teachers among the class of '58. Ann Cartwright and Margaret Shepard are teaching in San Francisco. Dora Sawyer is teaching in San Antonio, and Marie Moore is head of the Home Economics Department at East Carolina College in Greenville. Speaking of Greenville, Leigh Frances is secretary at Keel's Warehouse.

Sammy Corey runs the large Etna service station, located beside Bill Dunn's Space Research Laboratory. Phyllis Wallace is now a laboratory technician in Raleigh, and doing very well. Richard Tripp is in the salt flats of Utah working with Atomic Research.

Nancy Lupton, Betty Woolard, and Florence Ipock are running The Better Business Bureau in New Orleans. Evelyn Smith was recently selected Mother of the Year.

I know you have heard of the popular quiz show, "Name the Subject?" Philip Godfrey has now run his total winnings to $125,000.00.

Mary Jo Sawyer and Ginger Hodges are comedians on Danny Asby's "Toast of the Town." Billy Ray Woolard, famed dancer, was recently a guest on his show. Susan Roberts was also a guest singer. She is on the concert stage. Jess Harrington, the famous opera singer, has recently switched to popular songs and is doing very well.

Another TV star is Mrs. Charles E. Smith, the former Ann Barrington. She is hostess on the Romper room and our children really love her. Charlie is also doing fine. He is manager of White's Department Store. Working at the TV station as a cameraman, is Jackie Cole. He has done some excellent work.

We are represented extremely well on the gridiron. Steve Cochran, the fastest halfback in the pro-league along with 255 pound Durwood Dixon, make the Washington Redskins the number one team again. Jimmy Silverthorne is head coach at Harvard, and Doug Currier is coaching and teaching at Wake Forest.

Wuite a few of the classmates are serving in the armed forces. Eddie Snow is working with Navel Security on top secret plans. Kenny Purser is still in the Artic with the Navy. Colonel John Ratcliff is in charge of the local National Guard. Jimmie Warner, Geary Winstead, Roger Jefferson, and Charles Hull are serving as officers in the Air Force.

Irene Glover is still in Italy, studying and painting in Rome and Florence. Duffy Toler has his own comic strip syndicated in over 200 newspapers. Shirlie Gaskins has just returned from Africa. This is one of her many trips as a Christian Educator.

Benton Parker, Myron Ireland, Harold Willard, and Larry Woolard are stars for the Indianapolis racing team. Artie Rawls and Donald Windley are drivers for the Dodge racing team at Darlington, S. C. Billy Langston, Tommy Little, and Bennett Hall are all automobile salesmen associated with the business tycoon, Eddie Knott.

Hodges Brothers is now owned and operated by Mrs. B. T. Harris, the former Bettie Lou Matkins. Billy Thad is superintendent of the county schools.

Barbara Jones, the famous poet, has just completed a book, called SONNETS FROM THE PAMLICO. Charlie Mike Smith is the director of the men's glee club at Duke University.

Ray Sawyer owns a popular restaurant in Boston. Lou Warner is now owner of the Luanne Beauty Salon. Geneva Congleton also owns a beauty salon in Dallas, Texas.

L. M. Odom and Henry Lee Williamson have organized a band for NBC. Sandra Harrell is the head twirler.

Last, but not least, Roderick Roberson is the mayor of Bath. I should also like to recognize Ola Rae Gurganus for her splendid work in the restoration of Bath. Working with her were Joan Mizelle, Joyce Woolard, Dollie Squires, and Julie Ann Jones."

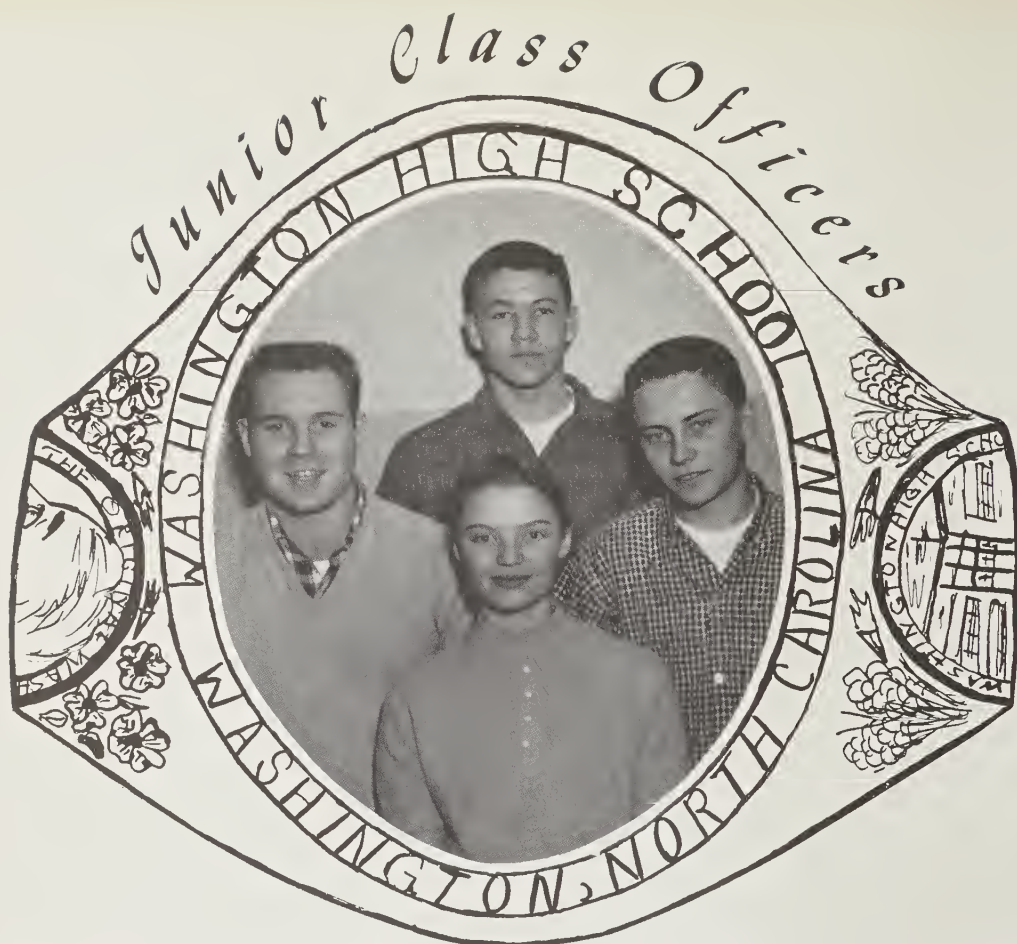

"I have really enjoyed listening to you talk about the class of '58. I feel as if I know everyone of them."

Juniors

Our Junior year has been the busiest one yet! We went well over the top in our magazine sales. This enabled us to bring outer space into the gym and cafeteria for an unforgettable Junior-Senior.

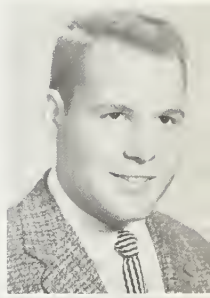

Some of us were honored for our scholastic records by being tapped into the Beta Club during an impressive ceremony. Some of us were again honored through these records by being elected marshals.

This year we've had a hand in racking up the points for our school by being members of the Varsity football, basketball, baseball, and track teams. As Cheerleaders we've kept the school spirit running high.

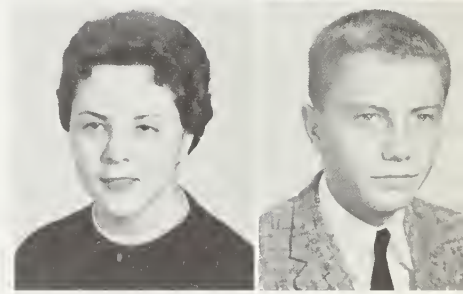

As Juniors we can easily be identified by our gorgeous blue and gold class rings. They are really something special.

Indeed the climax of this year was the capping ceremony. Now we certainly are dignified SENIORS.

SYNOPSIS OF THE YEAR

What a glorious year this has been, for at last we have become upperclassmen to someone else! We trust that we haven't given those lowly Freshmen too rough a time!

This year we had our first big Home Economics Dress Revue. Oh, what models we were!

We have done many new and exciting things these past few months. Writing our first articles for the PAMLICOAN, dissecting frogs, and earthworms, helping teachers through the Future Teachers' Club, and taking the Drivers' Training Course have really kept us busy.

Naturally, the highlight of this year was serving as waiters and waitresses at the Junior-Senior Banquet. We made quite an invasion from outer space!

Interested, aren't they?

All the World's a Challenge

Freshmen

This has been quite an exciting year for us, our first year in high school! We quickly learned our way around with the help of the handbooks given us by the Student Council.

For the first time we have been able to take an active part in school athletics. Being on the Junior Varsity basketball and football squads, being Junior Varsity cheerleaders, and playing girls' intramural basketball have been loads of fun.

One of our most outstanding social events was the Latin Club Banquet. We were true Roman slaves as we honored the patrician sophomores at this annual dinner party.

Last Word

Betsy Mason and Margaret Sheppard, Co-Editors, leave with the final shipment of copy for our PACKROMAK.

Another school year is rapidly coming to an end, and it will be the last one for a number of us. A year of memories...some enlightening, some repulsive. We, the PACKROMAK staff, have tried to keep some momentous scenes and occasions a living memory through this book. The pleasurable hours spent in preparing this annual will be a cherished memory for those of us who had the honor to work on it.

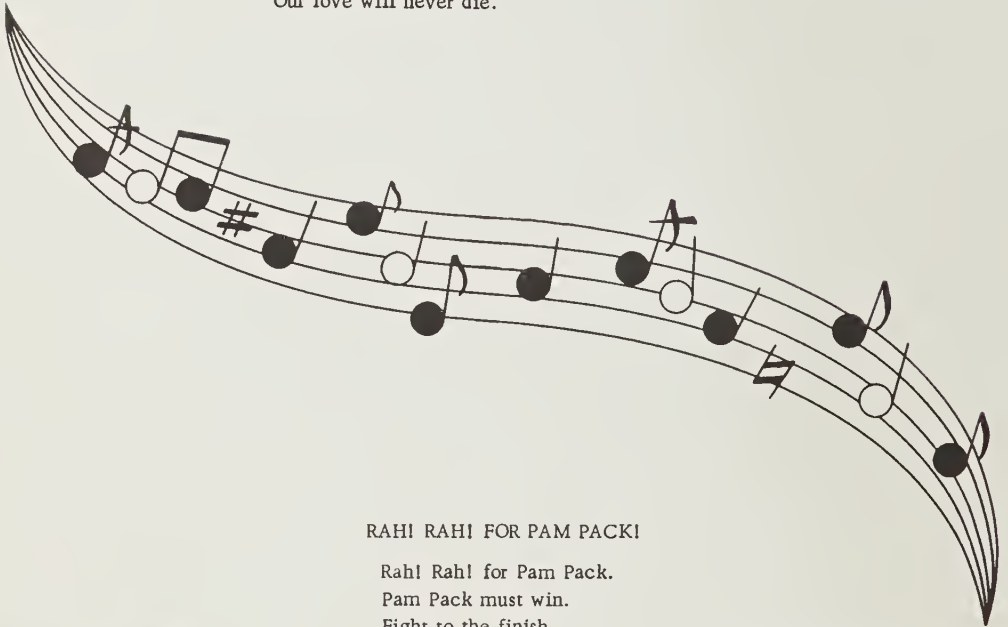

To the merchants, we say a big "Thank You." Without your help we never could have published this annual! To the faculty, we thank you for permitting us to interrupt your class for pictures. Last, but not least, we thank you, the students who bought a PACKROMAK. Without your interest and co-operation, there would not have been any need to have this book, the 1958 PACKROMAK.

TURN ON NOW INTO OUR AD SECTION. YOU WILL SEE MUCH THERE TO INTEREST YOU!

School Songs

ALMA MATER

Hail, Alma Mater!
We sing our praise to thee.
Hail, Alma Mater,
We pledge our loyalty.
To you, our school, we sing our song,
With hearts and heads held high
Hail, Alma Mater,
Our love will never die.
Hail to our school days,
That made our minds so keen.
To noble friends,
We sing our song, with hearts and heads held high
Hail, Alma Mater,
Our love will never die.

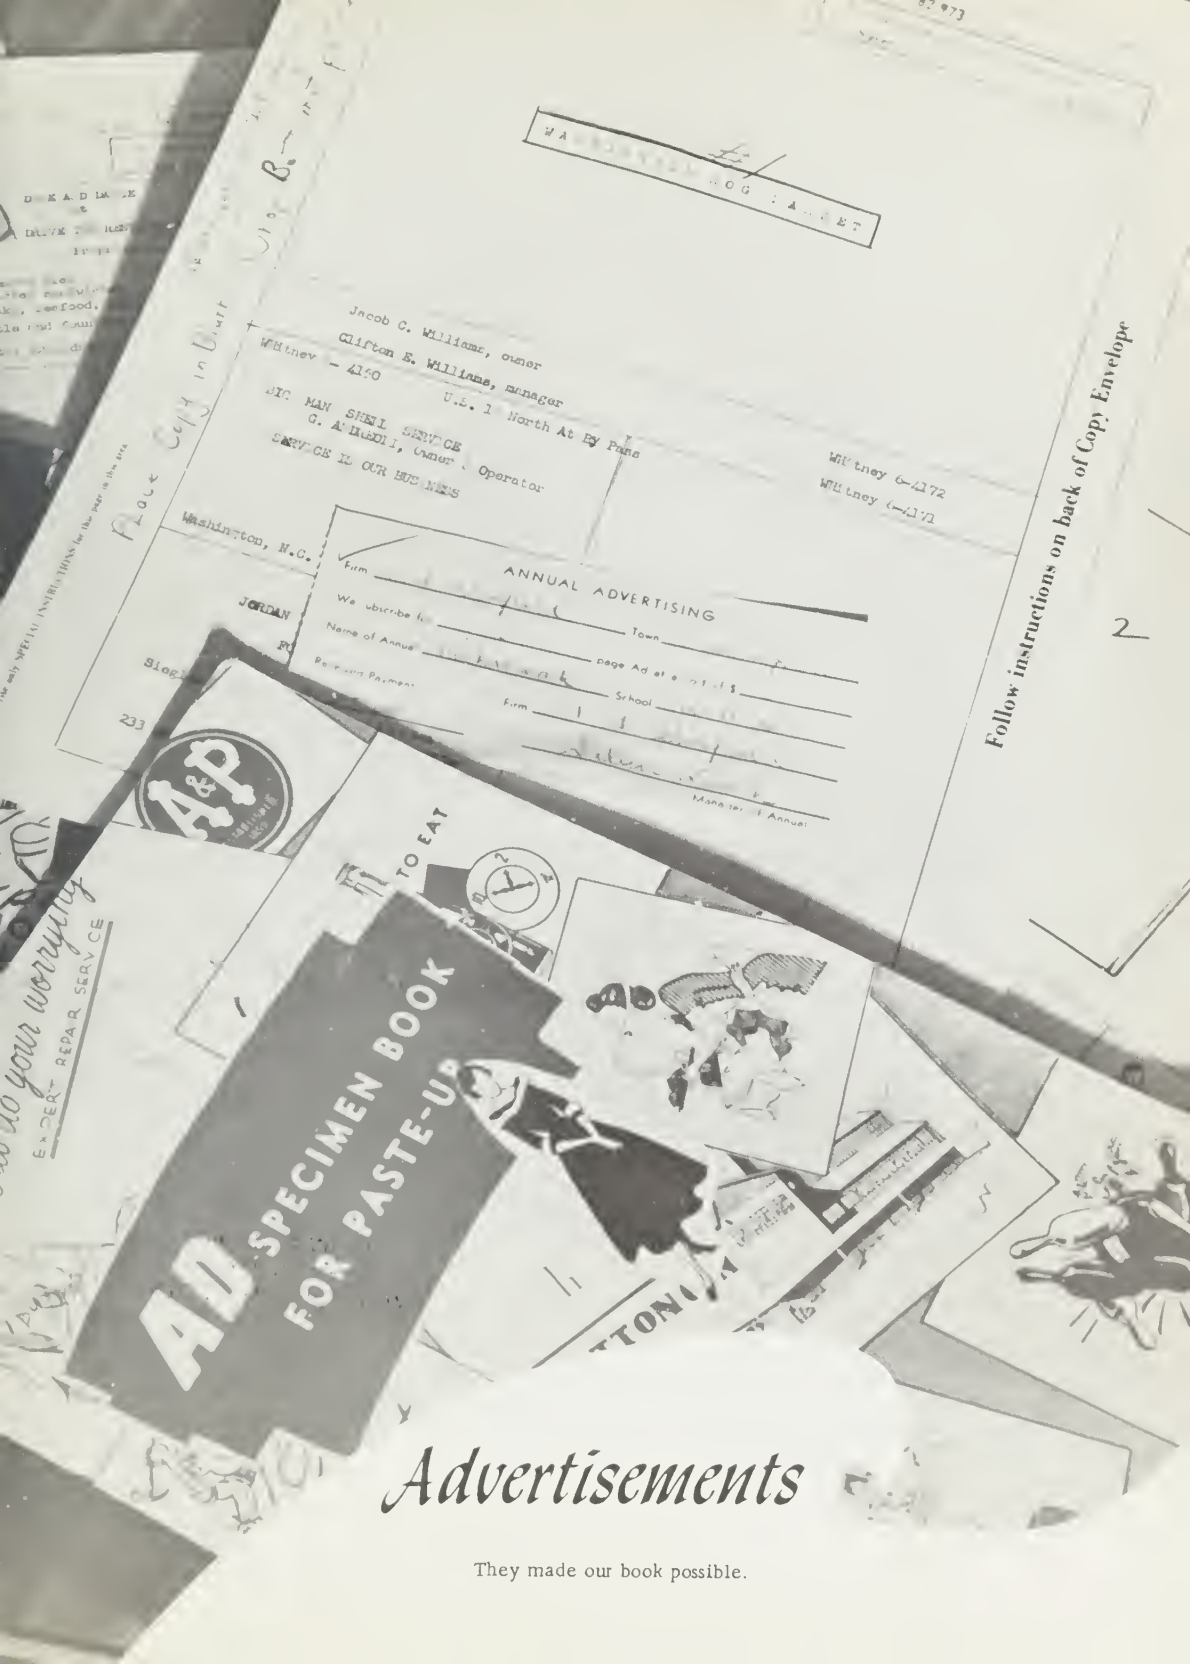

RAH! RAH! FOR PAM PACK!

Rah! Rah! for Pam Pack.
Pam Pack must win.
Fight to the finish,
Never give in!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
You do your best, boys,
We'll do the rest, boys.
Three cheers for W. H. S.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
